

HDTV broadcast should be treated no different then current TV broadcasts which do not include copy protection. There is nothing illegal about recording a show and watching it later. In fact I have a right to time shift if I want to. Dont allow the big studios to take away a basic tenant of american entertainment (time shifting) through technology which they couldnt do legislativily.